

HOLIDAY VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Give the gift of music this holiday season by volunteering with the Philharmonic Society's Sound Playground at the following festive events!

BOWERS MUSEUM CELEBRATION OF WINTER HOLIDAYS

Date: Sunday, December 3, 2023

Location: Bowers Museum

Event Time: 11:00am-3:00pm

Celebration of Winter Holidays is a festival of music and holiday-centered activities, including face painting, art projects, live performances, and more.

Philharmonic Society's Role:

We will bring the Music Mobile and provide instruments for kids to explore and try out. There will also be a table with a prize wheel and information about the Youth Music Education Programs and Committees.

Volunteer Responsibilities May Include:

- Set up/tear down table and materials
- Handle instruments and instruct booth visitors on how to hold/play them
- Run and monitor the prize wheel
- Maintain the table and keep it clean and orderly
- Provide information about the Committees and Youth Music Education Programs

SENSORY-FRIENDLY NUTCRACKER

Date: Friday, December 8, 2023

Location: Irvine Barclay Theatre

Event Time: 1:00pm-3:30pm

This special abridged performance of The Nutcracker features a reduced soundtrack volume, ambient lighting, and open seating to make sure everyone is able to enjoy the music and dance of this classic holiday production.

Philharmonic Society's Role:

We will bring the Music Mobile and provide quiet percussion instruments for kids to explore under supervision. There will also be a table with holiday crafts and information about the Youth Music Education Programs and Committees.

Volunteer Responsibilities May Include:

- Set up/tear down table and materials
- Handle instruments and instruct booth visitors on how to hold/play them
- Assist booth visitors with activity sheets and crafts
- Maintain the table and keep it clean and orderly
- Provide information about the Committees and Youth Music Education Programs
